

Merging Talent

866.637.4366

mergingtalent.com, Twitter: @chgoVixen

Innovative. Direct. Flexible.

Merging Talent is a marketing consulting firm that offers branding and staffing for any business. They come up with creative ways to stay within budgets while covering all marketing aspects efficiently. They are an asset to any business owner and often work side by side with the marketing director to make magic happen. Matching the right staff for projects to get results is our goal every day.

Elaina Schyb

Q&A

What are your most popular products or services?

Our Marketing Membership benefits any industry: offering design, call center, market research and services all in one place! Clients love it because they choose where energy is focused.

What tip would you give women who are starting a business?

Find someone you admire and follow their steps. Surround yourself with like-minded people, and if someone says anything negative turn it into positive fuel to push harder and succeed.

What do you like best about owning a business?

The results, seeing ideas come to fruition and making clients happy. The freedom to work at midnight or from any café and to meet with clients when they need me.

Photos by Bum Bul Bee Photography